I am Adenusi David Olamide, a Software Engineer, creating an attractive and User friendly Interface(UI), that allow Users to seamlessly interact with ideas and solutions. In other to keep delivering a topnotch UI I deem it fit to always relearn, learn and unlearn.

Aside, been a Software Engineer I volunteer for humanitarian services as I belong to the school of thought that say "The utmost purpose of a person is to help other, live for others". This as expose me to a couple of soft skills like Team work, communication, human relation , time management and ability to multi-task effectively and efficiently among others.
